A story is told of a French gentleman, who, having lost the bulk of his property through the rascality of friends in whom he trusted, crowned it all by the loss of his mental balance, and for the remaind-er of his days found his only delight in oding in omnibuses, and passing fares re of his days found his only delight in riding in omnibuses and passing fares from passengers to the driver, taking ears when change was retuned to add to it a son or two from his own pocket, and walch the effect on the receiver. In nine cases out of ten, as the story goes, the passenger, counting over his change and finding, as he supposed, that the driver had cheated himself, would look bewildered for a moment, and then pocket the change with a quiet chuckle. The specul delight of the lunatic was in satisfying himself in this way that nine-tenths of his tellow-nen were dishonest, if they only had the opportunity.

DEATH FROM LIGHTNING PAINLESS.—
Owing to the velocity with which the electric current moves, it is certain that a person struck by lightning has no premonition of the blow which he receives. When we see the zigzag or the flash, we see only the effect produced by the current which has already passed away. Tyndall says: "The nervous system requires a certain interval of time to become conscious of pain. The time of an electric discharge is but a small fraction of this interval; hence, as a sentient apof this interval; hence, as a sentient ap-paratus, the nervous system is destroyed before consciousness can set in." The sweetest comforts of this life are but treasures of snow. Do but take a handfall of snow, and crush it in your hand, and it will melt away presently; and so it is with the comforts of this world; if you grasp them in your hands said lay them too near your hearts, they will quickly melt and vanish away; but if you will not hold them too fast in your hands nor lay them too close to your hearts, they will abide the longer with you. There are those that hug their mercies to death, that kiss them till they kill them. till they kill them.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal emission is the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or deprayed sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both scros to an almost unbinited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow counterance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves or rattling of chariots, unessiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a displication to shun society, loss of memory, pinnels and various eruptions about the face, bettie fushes, furred tongue, fettle breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomanis and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, you should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a care effected by his new and scientife mode of treating disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure.
